A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Ellen, age eighty, lay in the hospital bed, her movement painfully constricted by a brace meant to help her broken hip. In those hours of strain, however, she was thinking less of herself than her stepson, Leo, whom she had raised from boyhood. A Catholic man of sixty, he had recently got divorced and entered a civil marriage. Ellen knew that she was living on borrowed time, but if Leo could only be reconciled to the Church, she would die happy.

This was her anxious prayer, but her petitions and sacrifices had not yet brought about his change of heart. But one day, she took her priest into her confidence. Something encouraging had happened. Now, Ellen was no "visionary" but a practical and able mother and housewife. Nevertheless, lately she had experienced a dream, she told him, that had deeply consoled her. "I dreamt I was lying here," she said, "when suddenly the door opened, and a little boy came in and stood beside me. He had rings of golden hair and was so beautiful I couldn't resist him. So, I leaned over and took him up on the bed and hugged him. As I did so, he said one word: 'Hope!' Then the dream ended."

After that heartening experience, Ellen renewed the vigor of her prayers. When she died a few years later at the age of 89, Leo had not yet come around. But she had passed away confident. Not long after her death, her stepson did return to the sacraments.

This true story fits in well with the second reading of today's Mass for Trinity Sunday. Here St. Paul reminds us that "affliction makes for endurance and endurance for tested virtue and tested virtue for hope." The peace of heart that makes us always hopeful is the special loving gift, not of the Holy Spirit alone but of the whole Blessed Trinity. In giving us hope, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit still require patience, but they forbid despair.

The Reverend Edward J. Smith, Pastor

Spiritual Adoption of the Unborn Continues!

Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen promoted the idea of "Spiritual Adoption of the Unborn"

- when an individual prays a short prayer every day for nine months to preserve the life of an unborn child.

Let us continue to pray until Christmas!

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

PRAY FOR LIFE – JUNE 2019

In recent years, religious freedom has been increasingly threatened, endangering our ability to live out our Faith in ways such as protecting and defending human life. As Catholics, we know that every human life is created in the image and likeness of God. Let us pray for the protection of religious freedom in our nation, that we may continue our pro-life efforts in accord with the Gospel of Life. Visit the USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) website for more information and prayers:
