 from the Pastor . . .

The world can be a tough place sometimes. In the today's first reading, Elijah laments, "This is enough, O Lord!" And begs to Lord to take his life to be done with his prophetic mission and move on to heaven. Maybe Elijah is momentarily filled with all that St. Paul warns us against: "bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling... malice." We and Elijah are admonished to "be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love."

God had plans for Elijah and sent an angel to bring food and drink for the earthly journey that he might imitate God and live in love. Likewise, God has other plans for us and sends the Eucharist as a source of grace, that we too can imitate God, living in love. He does this because we are challenged to put away the old clothes of our former selves and put on Christ, in order to fully live out the vows we make at Baptism: to become people who love God and neighbor.

Sadly, there are people who don't want us to change. They want to trap us in our old selves for their own reasons, because they think they know us, or perhaps because this new life challenges them. "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven?'"

And so, we come to this Eucharist, this living bread come down from heaven. We must make a choice: Will we keep dressing in the same clothing of our old self, and holding back our lives from the Lord's plan? Or will we seek the real food of Christ and believe in Him, the one God sent to be the Bread of Life? Will we let go, not hold back, and then fully partake in the life in Christ, put on Christ, come to the table of the Eucharist for the real food that makes lasting change – and accept the grace to persevere? Will we do this even when the whole world wants us to remain who we were? Will we do this even when the whole world seems to be a burden and we are tempted to join Elijah and cry out, "This is enough, O Lord"? These are the moment when we most need the Eucharist, so that we don't hold back, but persevere, and believe.

Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

During this Year of Saint Joseph, the Church has made a plenary indulgence available to all the faithful who satisfy the usual conditions (confession, Eucharist, prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father, a spirit of detachment from sin, and the intention to gain the indulgence for one's self or someone in purgatory), as well as perform one of the prescribed works, as follows:

- Meditate for at least 30 minutes on the Lord's Prayer, or take part in a spiritual retreat of at least one day that includes a meditation on St. Joseph
- Following St. Joseph's example, perform a spiritual or corporal work of mercy
- Recite the Holy Rosary with your family or your fiancé
- Entrust your daily activity to the protection of St. Joseph
- Pray through the intercession of St. Joseph that those seeking work can find dignifying work
- Recite the Litany of St. Joseph for Christians who suffer all forms of persecution
- Recite any prayer or act of piety legitimately approved in honor of St. Joseph, in particular on March 19, May 1, on the 19th of any month, and every Wednesday

This gift of a plenary indulgence extends particularly to the elderly, the sick, the dying, and all those who, for legitimate reasons, are unable to leave their homes, if, detached from all sin and with the intention of fulfilling, as soon as possible, the usual conditions, recite an act of piety in honor of St. Joseph, comfort of the sick and patron of a good death, offering with confidence to God the pains and trials of their life.
