A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Max Herr, aged 75, retired in March, 1981 after 52 years as the official Vatican clock-winder. Pope Saint John Paul II received this German-born clockmaker and his family in a special audience at the time of his retirement.

There are some 50 pendulum clocks in the Vatican. Since 1929, Herr had made the rounds every Friday winding and resetting them. When they or the many non-pendulum clocks needed repair, he would clean and overhaul them. Six popes had been his friends, and he had many "professional" memories of them. Pope Pius XII used to have him set all the clocks fifteen minutes ahead. Pope Paul VI found ticking clocks a distraction, so he kept only one timepiece in his rooms: a small alarm clock he had used since seminary days. American friends gave Pope Saint John Paul II a grandfather chime clock when he was installed as pope.

Max Herr was certainly not the most important figure in the central offices of the Catholic Church. But the role he played in the Vatican, however humble, was expert and indispensable. The popes are called by God to save eternal souls, but they must do their work in a world where time rules. In a sense, for 52 years this German clockmaker had kept the whole Church going!

That is what St. Paul meant when he said, "There are different gifts but the same Spirit; there are different ministries but the same Lord." Whether great or small, we should all be happy to use our God-given talents for the benefit of others.

"To each person the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good." (1 Corinthians 12:7)

The Reverend Edward J. Smith, Pastor

What Father envisions this group to be:

- * An opportunity to do enjoyable events
- * An opportunity for socialization
- * An opportunity to build community
- * An opportunity to learn
- * An opportunity to grow in faith
- * This is NOT a fundraising group
- * This is a FUNraising group

Please join Father on Friday, June 1st at 10:00 AM in the Parish Life Center to discuss the many possibilities a Senior Group could offer. Hopefully, we can work together to continue to build our wonderful Parish community!
