A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Question: I don't have the gift of healing that Jesus exercised, such as in today's gospel. So how can I carry on his mission of healing activity?

One thing notable about Jesus was what we could say he had a "ministry of presence." When Jairus approached Jesus in today's gospel (Mk 5:21-43) about his dying daughter, Jesus immediately became present to him and left with him to visit the child. On the way, someone hemorrhaging was healed simply by touching his cloak; so he stopped to be present to that woman. When he arrived at Jairus' house, he was present to the apparently dead child. In all cases, he brought new life into dark situations.

I think that we have all known people who were dying, probably within our circle of friends, and certainly within our own family or extended family. Sometimes it can feel awkward to visit under those circumstances of impending death. Sometimes you wonder why you are there in the first place, because you know you can't change the situation and you would probably rather be somewhere else. The same scenario would apply to visiting a friend or family who has lost a parent or child to some unexpected and accidental death. You know you cannot change that situation, but something drives you to visit the hurting family.

What we are experiencing when we reach out to dying or grieving friends is the very compassion of Jesus. It is that compassion that urges us to visit those who need consoling. And our compassion finds its release in being present to others in their time of need, just like Jesus. Consoling and comforting are spiritual works of mercy, and visiting the sick and dying is a corporal work of mercy. This "mystery of mercy" is supremely revealed in the life of Jesus, and as Pope Saint John Paul II taught us, it is our constant mission to proclaim and introduce that mercy into our daily life (Dives in Misericordia, 1980; #14).

KNOW YOUR CATECHISM! Just being present to those in need is healing! Coming to the aid of our neighbor in their time of need, both spiritual and physical need, is a charitable action or "work of mercy" (CCC #2447). When we serve those who are hurting, we serve Christ who identifies with them (CCC #544).

The Reverend Edward J. Smith, Pastor

HOLY SPIRIT, BRING US A DESIRE FOR EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

During a Holy Hour, in a vision of the cenacle, Sr. Faustina saw the institution of the Holy Eucharist. She came to understand that, "At the moment of consecration...the sacrifice was fully consummated. Hereafter, only the external ceremony of death will be carried out. Blessing House – Lorain, OH

- Social Concerns Committee is sponsoring the annual Christmas in July 2018 collection to support Blessing House. The collection will take place all weekends in July beginning July 7 & 8, 2018. Blessing House is a wonderful ministry - a crisis care center for children of Lorain County. See the bulletin insert and our website for a detailed list of items that can be contributed. The Ornaments on the Christmas Tree in the church have needed items written on them. Take an ornament with you, purchase the item and place it under the tree. God bless your generosity!

Birthright of Lorain County

- The Shower for Mary was a success again this year and the Social Concerns Committee thanks you all. We collected $321 from the baby bottle campaign and quite a few well-needed baby items which I recently delivered to Birthright of Lorain County. I wish you could have seen the smiles of the volunteers as we brought in the baby items and gave them the check. Multiple clients were being taken care of while we were there and it was humbling to see their grateful faces and know that we are making a difference. If anyone would like to help out the Social Concerns Committee here at St. Teresa, just call the church office or email me at pparkey20@gmail.com. It is truly a blessing helping those less fortunate.
- This September the Altar & Rosary Society and the Social Concerns Committee will join
- forces to sponsor a gently used clothing drive for Birthright. Watch the bulletin for details.

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF HUMANAЕ VITAE

Pope Paul VI

Humanae Vitae--Proclaiming God's gifts of love and life to husband and wife. The papal encyclical, Humanae vitae (HV) written by Blessed Pope Paul VI in 1968, provides beautiful and clear teaching about God's plan for married love and the transmission of life. Visit www.usccb.org, under Marriage and Family, to help you deepen your understanding of these teachings. Please note, July 25, 2018 marks the 50th anniversary of Humanae vitae.

God's Loving Design 8. Married love particularly reveals its true nature and nobility when we realize that it takes its origin from God, who "is love," the Father "from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named." Marriage, then, is far from being the effect of chance or the result of the blind evolution of natural forces. It is in reality the wise and provident institution of God the Creator, whose purpose was to effect in man His loving design. As a consequence, husband and wife, through that mutual gift of themselves, which is specific and exclusive to them alone, develop that union of two persons in which they perfect one another, cooperating with God in the generation and rearing of new lives. The marriage of those who have been baptized is, in addition, invested with the dignity of a sacramental sign of grace, for it represents the union of Christ and His Church.

CHILDREN'S ENVELOPES AVAILABLE
